SYNOPSIS

This ordinance amends the Town's official zoning map to reflect a R-Residential designation for the approximately 49.98 acres on Substation Road known as Tax Parcel No. 134-16.00-17.00.

FINDINGS

The Mayor and Town Council found that this Ordinance was appropriate legislative action based on the following findings:

- The rezoning is consistent with the comprehensive plan, particularly the future land use map's designation of the parcel as Residential
- The rezoning will facilitate the provision of transportation via DelDOT's requirements for improvements on Substation Rd
- The rezoning will facilitate the provision of water and sewer, as those services are available for the parcel
- The rezoning is consistent with the uses in the surrounding area, including a large portion of the farm previously sold and developed for houses
- The rezoning provides orderly growth within the Town, where growth is expected
- The requested zoning district is the least dense, thereby preventing overcrowding and providing adequate air and light
- The current agricultural use will not be viable long-term
