

Evans Park Monthly Report May 2023

Community Center Rentals & Town Events:

5/9 – Contractors for a Cause meeting
5/12 – Gardeners by the Sea meeting
5/16 – IRHS Young Business Professionals banquet
5/18 – Delaware Deaf Seniors meeting
5/20 – Baby shower Balasus

May Town Events Summary:

5/19 – First concert in the park of the season! Lower Case Blues played to a crowd of approximately 500-600 people! The Millville 84 Fire Police coordinated the parking. Food trucks on site were The Street Kitchen, Luv Thai and Rita's Ice Cream. The next concert is Wed June 21st with Over Time Band from 6PM – 8PM. A fourth food option will be added, Doric Lodge that will serve hot dogs and hamburgers.

Networking Opportunities:

5/30 Parks & Rec Administrator and the Assistant Town Clerk attended Bethany-Fenwick Chamber Business Networking event at the Freeman Stage.

Website Progress:

We are reviewing final documents to be uploaded and have a projected launch for the new site in mid-June.

Grant Opportunities:

A pre-application for the ORPT grant has been submitted to the Delaware State Parks. We should get a response sometime in June. Once the pre-application is approved the complete application will be submitted by September 2023. The grant gets awarded in the first quarter of 2024.

Other Park Improvements:

A local high school student is crafting a "Tiny Library" to be placed in the playground area. Children will be able to take a book or leave one for others. It should be completed sometime in June.
