- C. Discuss, consider and possible vote on potential annexation into Municipal limits which would amend Comprehensive Plan to include zoning map for future annexation.

SYNOPSIS: Lennar is looking to annex territory into Millville, not within the town's future annexation comp plan map. Meeting is an introduction to the Breamonte Farms project to see if town is interested in considering annexation.

Bryce Jones, the land acquisition manager for Lennar Homes, presented the project emphasizing the personal connection to the property and the special development plans. The project includes 155 single-family homes with larger lot sizes and amenities like a pool and clubhouse. The property is 58 +/- acres. Mayor Belinko asked the pronunciation of the Farms. Mr. Jones said it is "Bre-mon-tay" Farms.

Mr. Wisgirda questioned the slab foundation, and if there would be crawl space. Mr. Jones stated there would be no crawl space and all utilities would be on the main floor of the home.

Mr. Parent questioned, why Millville to Mr. Jones. Mr. Jones responded "that the biggest point where they are at in development specifically is the growth in the strategic planning that you guys have provided over the last couple of years. It's very relevant of the way your town operates. We obviously operate with a lot of municipalities: Sussex County, Kent County, Newcastle County, and being local to this area. Again, I think it makes all the sense in the world to have the amenities of the way your town operates under this umbrella with this community.

Ms. Brienza mentioned she liked it being all single-family homes being proposed. Mr. Wisgirda agreed he liked the designs of the homes.

Mr. Thompson stated they're not in the comprehensive plans growth map, the next step would be to ask Office of State Planning to amend our growth map.

Mayor Belinko emphasized the importance of completing developments before the changes brought by Senate Bill 23. Ms. Brienza and other council members expressed their support for the project and the benefits it brings to the town.

Ms. Brienza made a motion to amend the growth map for this annexation. Mr. Wisgirda second the motion. Mayor Belinko asked for a roll call.
